Dear Carie,

Boy, we sure had a belly of a time in school this year, Mo. Potwaelos have ec classes were really riots, weren't they? but sure was a rotten shame that we didn't get 1 single class the same lunch hour together. We'll make up for it next year. Boy, the orchestra weren't so awful after all, though, because we had lots of fun that day we had a lot of practice and got a I. I thought they would kick us out the glee club got a I. I just about flipped when I saw the first note. We had a lot of good running around together outside of school, haven't we? when we have had a lot of fun at Tillow. I wonder what I had on that day you dived off the high diving board at Tillow. I guess I should've talked rather than dive from the high board at Tillow. (I probably would've looked like a fool) I hope we can take a lot of like rides & have other fun this summer. Lots of luck in your future years at P.H.S. Merry Christmas from an old pal. Puyallup High School
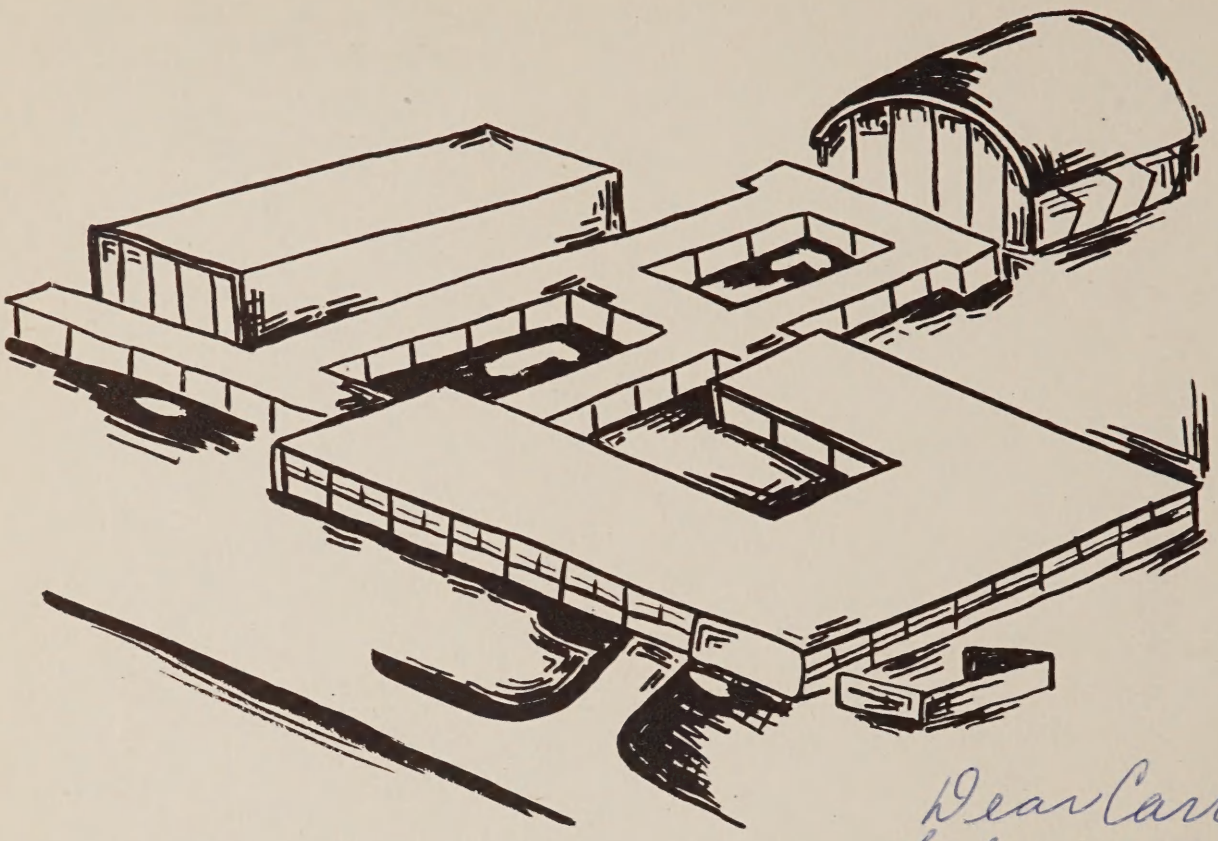
Puyallup, Washington

alias Bud Podbelian
alias Joe Taylor



Puyallup Junior High points to the future. From a dream in the hearts of a few, it has grown to a reality, etched in brick and concrete. Soon the walls will resound with a noisy bustle of activity as the first students scramble for their places in the class rooms. This new building stands as a tribute to the foresight of those men and women who believed in a forward-looking educational system and a better community.

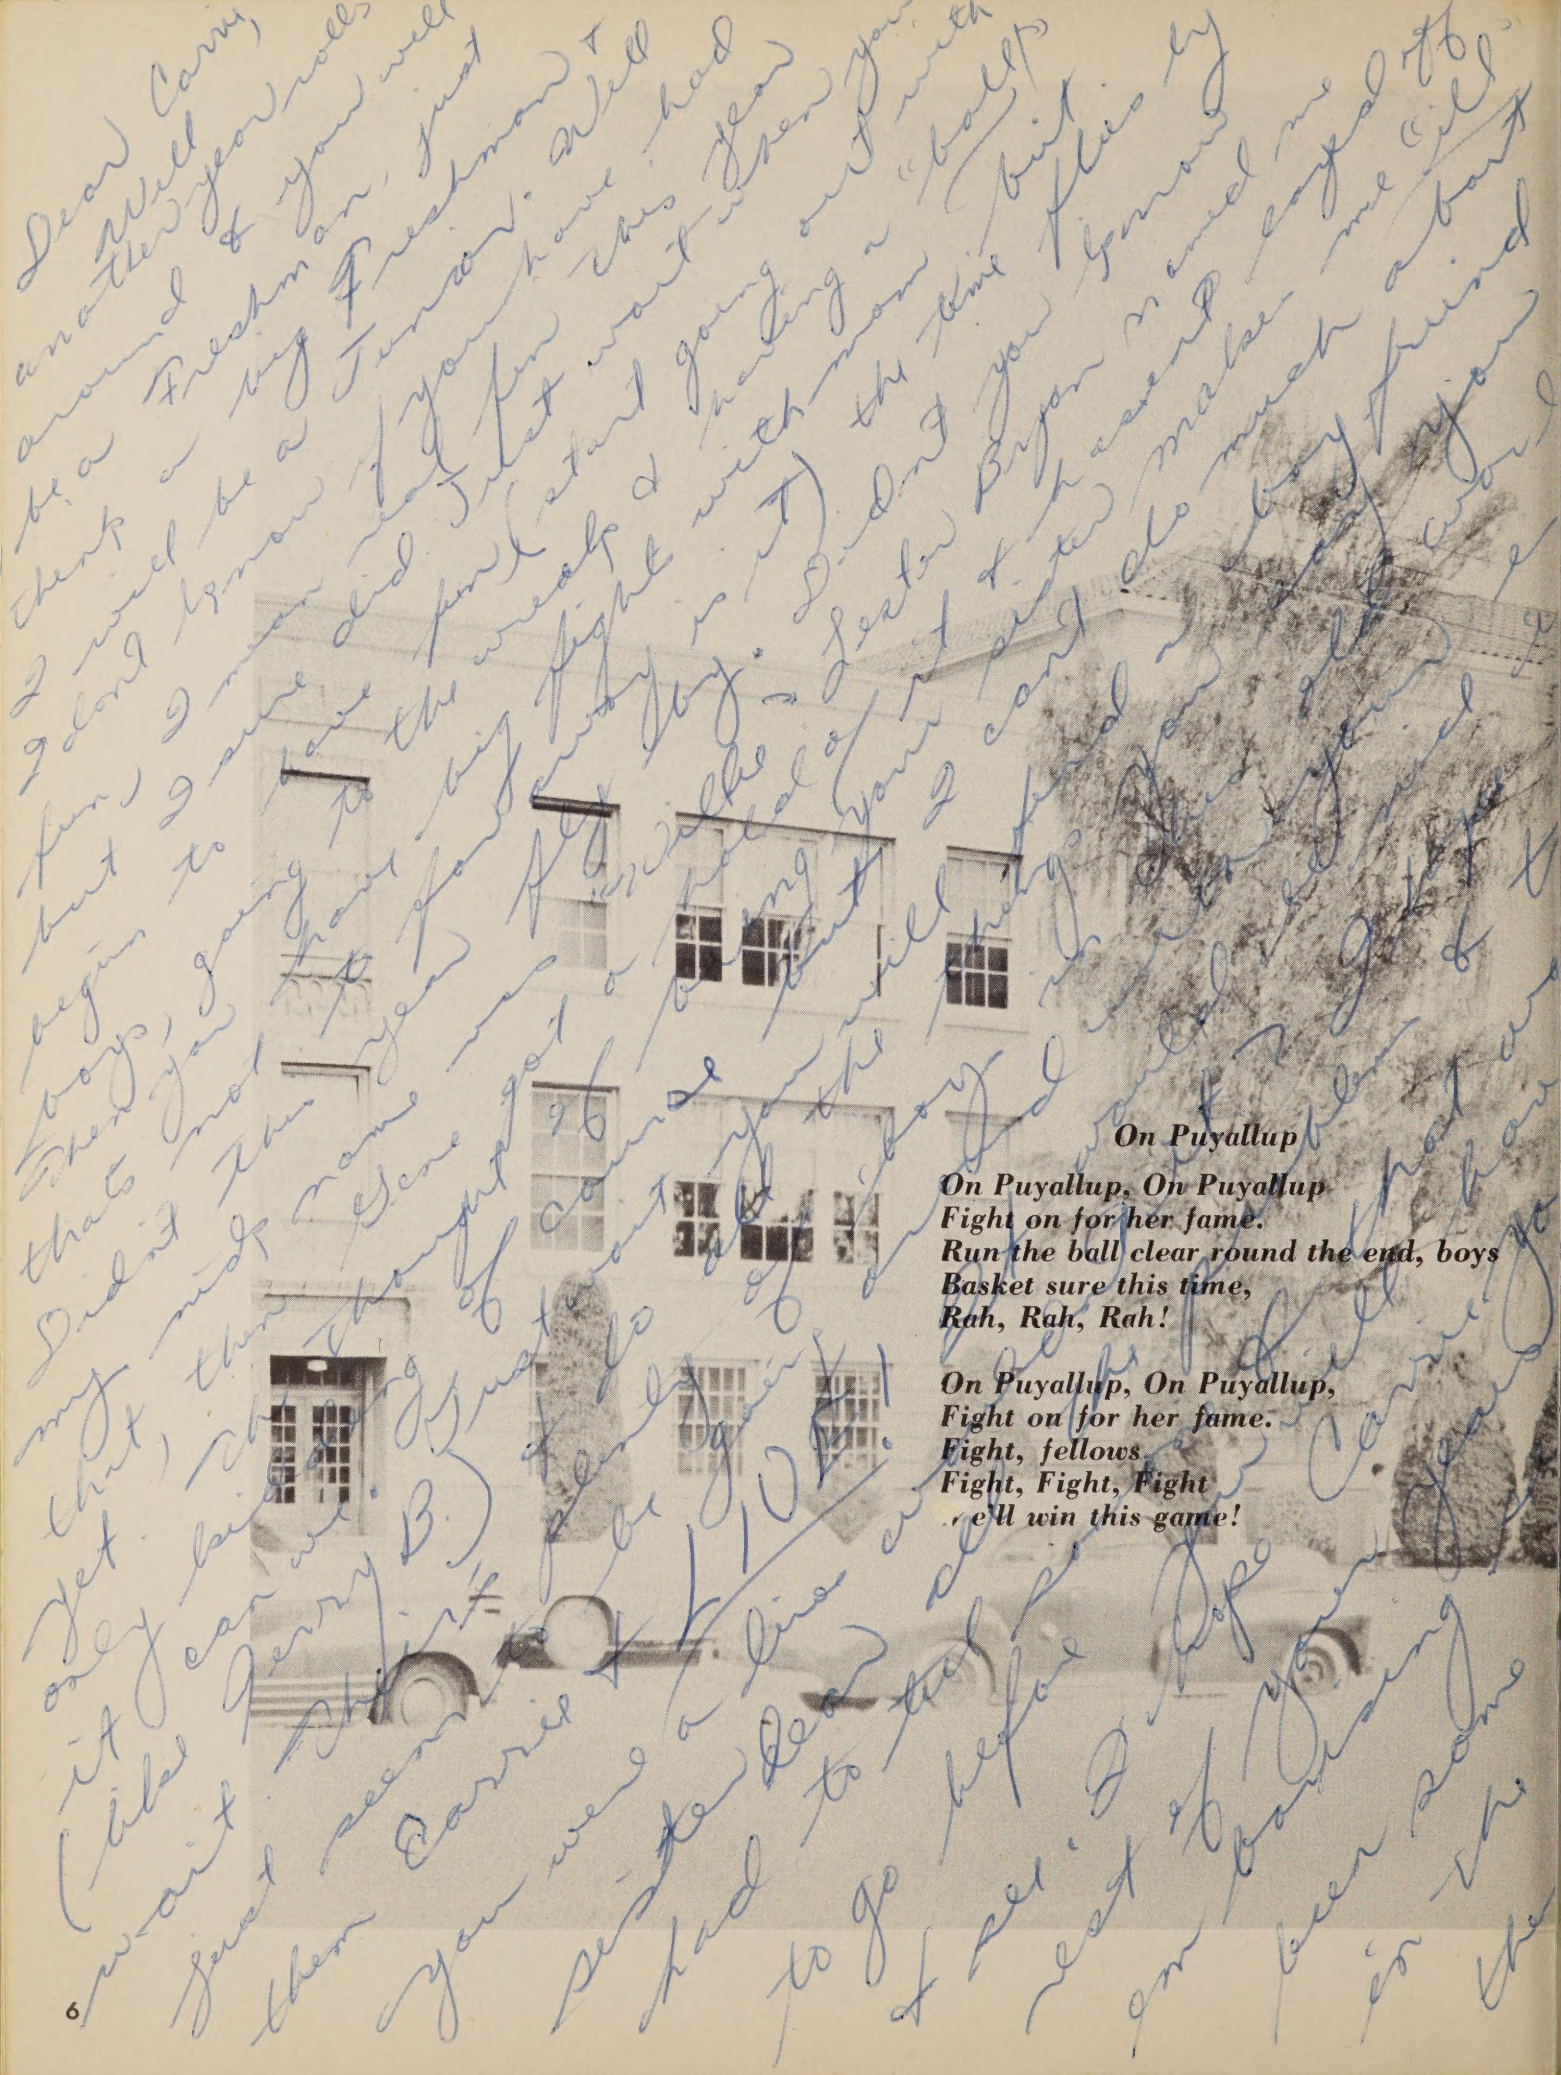
The Viking pays special tribute to Harry P. Hansen for his long service as principal of Puyallup High School. For thirty-six years he has worked to uphold the high standards of our schools. He is respected for his helpful guidance, firm leadership, and democratic methods of education. Mr. Hansen—the kind of man the student with a problem can always depend upon for help and a mild lecture.

To you, Mr. Hansen, who have so admirably supported our traditions these past years, we dedicate the 1956 Viking.



On Puyallup

CLASS OF '56 PAUSES AT THE CROSSROADS

The Class of '56 stands at the crossroads as they receive their diplomas as a conclusion to their high school careers.

The impressive commencement ceremony will long be treasured along with these other outstanding memories: capturing the elusive season ticket trophey, setting a record by winning the stunt assembly for three years, presenting "Our Town," attending football and basketball games, and dancing at the Senior Ball.

The whirling maze of activities and studies which engulfed these seniors ended with graduation. Now a new series of experiences and thrills begin. The class members look forward to various occupations: some to college, other to jobs, and some to military service.

These four years have been a long, hard pull, interspersed with laughter and tears. Leaving all this behind, the Class of '56 rises and yells for the last time: "HERE'S WHERE PEP AND SPIRIT MIX, 1-9-5-6."

WE'VE ARRIVED!

Robin Hood and his merry band of good-natured outlaws carried the Class of '56 to their third victory in the annual stunt assembly. With this win, the Class of '56 became the only class in history to win three times.

Maid Victoria, played by Rosemary Fly, loved Robin Hood who was portrayed by John Judy. Their peaceful forest was invaded by the wicked, conniving Sumner Sherrif of Nottingham, Bill Decker, who kidnapped Maid Victoria as collateral for back taxes. Robin Hood rallied his merry band and in a rip-roaring battle, saved Victoria for the Vikings.

BOARD OF CONTROL HEADS COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE

Spearheading the drive for school betterment in a representative democracy was the Senior High Board of Control. Through this governing body, every student has a voice in his student government. Discussion items brought up in the home rooms were carried to the Board of Control meetings for consideration and action.

A major influence in Puyallup's activity program, the Board promoted the sale of season tickets, selling activity passes to more than 90 per cent of the student body. The next project was an enthusiastic promotion of the Community Chest drive, which went over the top for the first time. Later in the winter, a school cleanliness campaign was initiated as Board of Control members tried to get each student to take greater pride in his school.

Student Body President John Judy presided over the early morning meetings. Other student body officers assisting him were: Brian Wrennall, vice president; Sally Newenhof, secretary; Danny Vesey, yell king; and Kathy Watkin, yell queen.

In September, at the very outset of the school year, the Junior High Board of Control was one of the first organiaztions to swing into action on the south side of the building. The officers, elected the previous spring, began to plan their first meeting soon after school resumed, and home rooms elected representatives.

The students themselves headed many programs. In the fall the Junior High Board of Control promoted the season ticket campaign and the Community Chest Drive. As the days became brisker and the leaves started to fall, board members turned their attention to the lagging attendance at junior high football games. A good sportsmanship drive was started, and students began to turn out for the games. During the winter and spring, the board turned its attention to hall conduct and the annual locker problem.

Head man of the Junior High Board of Control this year was Kent Decker, president of the student body. Other officers were Carol Christianson, vice president; Janice Reeder, secretary; and Sandy Bacon, yell leader.

VIKING VANGUARD TAKES ALL-AMERICAN RATING

One glance in Room 310-A would give an idea of the intricate confusion involved in putting out the Viking Vanguard. News, feature, and sports stories in the pigeon holes, assignment lists on the walls, galley proofs, and snorting editors—the room is perpetually cluttered with the indispensable materials necessary to produce a bi-weekly paper.

On the walls hang the roster and exchange papers. Student editors cluster around the long table waiting for a chance to use the typewriters. Others dig frantically through overloaded drawers, looking for that missing story or ad assignment. And over this scene presides another indispensable person—Mr. Snodgrass, the adviser who somehow always seems to solve the problems.

The high standards of writing and editing the Viking Vanguard were rewarded this year by an All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association, the first time since 1949 the honor had been achieved.

KIDS SOUGHT THE SCOOP; PAPER'S OFF THE PRESS!

Every day is a busy day for the Vanguard staff. During the off-week ad solicitors are pounding the sidewalks and the feature writers are frantically racking their brains in an effort to beat that deadline. The following Monday is the beginning of a frantic week for cub reporter and editor alike.

On Monday and Tuesday copy is read, edited, and sent to the printer. On Wednesday the first galley sheets come back to be read and the pages are made up. Often lights burned until the wee hours of Thursday morning, as the aspiring journalists wrote headlines and put on the finishing touches. Thursday was shop day as the students worked with the printers to assure the best paper possible.

Continuing in the precedent set by last year's staff, members of the Vanguard staff rotated all editorial positions except that of editor-in-chief, which was held by Dave Allmendinger. Mr. Harold Snodgrass was the adviser of the Vanguard and Miss Gladys Sorenson was art adviser.

HEADLINES, DEADLINES PLAGUE VIKING STAFF

Looking for a unique theme and cover and then meeting those deadlines kept the Viking staff on its collective toes. First plans laid early last spring went awary and the publication Board was faced with a new theme choice in the fall. The book was expanded to 128 pages and page layout were planned. For the first time, students were given a choice between padded and hard-case covers. All of the advance planning was done by the Publications Board.

The journalism classes were called upon for help in writing copy, selling advertising, and drawing page layouts. The photgraphy staff set up and equipped a dark room, which simplified the job of producing pictures.

In January members of the Viking staff toured Liberal Engraving Company in Tacoma. The staff members watched lithograph plates being made, and followed a page through the complete printing process.

GIRLS' CLUB SPONSORS MIXER; PLANS STYLE SHOW

Having as its members every girl in Puyallup High, the Senior High Girls' Club strives to develop friendliness and loyality in all its members.

Early this fall the "Friendship" Mixer was presented to let new and old friends alike get together to sing and make plans for the coming year. Games and entertainment highlighted the program. Refreshments were served afterwards.

At Christmas the girls brightened up the halls with sprays of cedar and holly trimmed with colorful red and green ribbons. In cooperation with the home economics department, the Girls' Club sponsored the annual Mothers' and Daughters' Tea and Style Show in the spring.

Officers for the past year were Elvera Sommer, president; Judy Nelson, vice president, Gail Miller, secretary, and Carole McBride, historian. Miss Palma Larsen was the adviser.

Mariella Gratzer, Bev Jones, and Patty Loidhamer put up a big snowflake to decorate the hall at Christmas time.

Automatic membership in Junior High Girls' Club —that's what every girl entering junior high receives. She is a member of an active organization from her first day in school.

First on the agenda of activities was a mixer, held to help the seventh grade girls get acquainted with the upperclassmen.

Their second major project was decorating the junior high halls at Christmas. They placed swags in the halls and also decorated the bulletin board with Christmas greetings.

Presiding over the Girls Club Cabinet was Diane Stroh. She was assisted by Barbara Knull, vice president; and Margaret Cox, secretary.

Each home room selected a representative to serve on the cabinet. Mrs. Emeline Rentsch again served as adviser.

Many Junior High girls attended the annual Girls' Club mixer in September.

LARGEST LATIN GROUP STAGES ROMAN BANQUET

As membership swelled to a new high last fall, the Latineers elected Bob Montgomery president and planned an initiation well calculated to mildly torture the new members.

In November many Latineers traveled to Seattle for the state J.C.L. convention. At Christmas the halls resounded with the traditional Latin carols. During the month of February, all classes worked hard to publish the Vox Latina for the state. In April the annual Roman banquet was staged. Latineers dined Roman style, seeking to create the atmosphere of the days when the Romans ruled the world. Miss Frieda Scheitlin was adviser.

SEASON TICKET COMMITTEE

Every Thursday morning found Bernice Iverson and JoAnn Robinson working with Miss Hughes on season tickets.

Three girls were chosen from the bookkeeping classes to issue season ticket material to home room representatives every month, collect the money, record it, and deposit the money. Miss Margaret Hughes was the adviser of this committee.

PROJECTION CREW SHOWS EDUCATIONAL MOVIES

The more ambitious students who arrived at school about eight in the morning often saw a group of boys carrying moving picture apparatus into a room where some instructional material will be viewed. Besides showing pictures, the boys also spliced film, and made wire recordings.

Starting the year with an installation of new officers, the Future Teachers Club completed an active year. In December members of this group toured McNeil Island Penitentiary. The Future Teachers had many informal meetings and parties to discuss the teaching profession. Mr. Don Henry was the new adviser of this group.

The Washington Retailers' Club took part in three contests at the state convention. Ned Johnson's merchandise manual won third place in the state. Dennis Arnold was a representative in the speech contest. Marlene Heins, Eleanor Sands, and Alma Martinson formed a display judging team. Judy Nelson was elected state historian.

Local clergymen, as well as club members, were featured speakers at the weekly meeting of the Viking Christian Youth. The purpose of this group was to encourage high standards of Christian conduct and provide a non-denominational fellowship.

Bible Club members took part in meetings of the Youth Council, along with other clubs in this area. After graduation all senior members went on a cruise.

Officers of the group have been Arlene Caspersen, president; Mary Rhea, vice president; and Carolyn Fox, secretary-treasurer. The adviser was Miss Lenore Ericson.

Ned Johnson's "Portraiture" manual won third place in the state D.E. contest.

SPANISH CLUB PRESENTS 'FIESTA' ENTERTAINMENT

Fiesta! With this theme, members of the Spanish Club took a make-believe trip throughout Mexico as a part of their annual assembly. Singing, dancing, and a Spanish-type congo line highlighted the program.

Early in the year the Spanish Club constitution was changed to allow more officers and a different meeting time. After all business meetings, games were played, and refreshments were served.

In January the group had a special treat, as Enrique Onorro, a South American attending the University of Washington, spoke about his homeland. Enrique explained that life in Columbia is very different than life in the United States. He pointed out some of these differences, such as dating customs and methods of education.

Officers of Spanish Club have been Larry McKillip, president; Arlene Caspersen, vice president; Carolyn Fox, secretary; and Janice Lange, treasurer. Miss Helen Zobrist was the adviser.

SENIORS STAGE 'OUR TOWN'

Life, love and marriage, and death—the tranquil existence of a small town in New Hampshire was shown in the senior-sponsored play, "Our Town."

To fully appreciate the real beauty of the play the audience had to use its imagination, as no scenery or props were used in the play. "Our Town" offered quite a change of pace from the usual plays with such simple plots that the butler is immediately recognized as the villian.

The leading roles went to Bill Zimmerman, who portrayed the stage manager, and Carole McBride, who took the part of Emily. Roger Dixon had the male lead protraying George Gibbs. The production was directed by Morris Hendrickson.

From the time Emily and George decided their future at the soda fountain until Emily turned up the hill to her "new home," this production captured the interest and understanding of the audience.

HANSEN PICKS 'TOM SAWYER'

The near-forgotten days of steamboats of the Mississippi and barefoot boys fishing with willow poles were brought to life with all the old charm described by Mark Twain in the Junior sponsored play, "Tom Sawyer."

Tom Sawyer, played by Dyer Mizner, and his young friend, Huckleberry Finn, portrayed by Roger Magnuson, found adventure along the banks of the muddy Mississippi. Aunt Polly, played by Elaine Shuck, added her sharp tongue and warm heart to the story. The new girl in town, Becky Thacker, portrayed by Karen Hansen, provided the amorous portion of the plot.

The play was dedicated to Principal Harry Hansen, who chose it as the one he has enjoyed most in his years at Puyallup High School. It was originally produced in 1937.

Poor Tom is dead—or is he?

Y GROUPS MAKE SERVICE THEIR GOAL

The Hi-Y Council and the Recreation Board combined this year to better serve the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups. This new group helped settle differences at the Rec, decided the point scale for the groups and organized the Rec dances and the Hi-Y training conference. President Joy Lepley led the council. The members are picked from the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs.

Viking Tri-Hi-Y served at the Orthopedic Smorgasbord and furnished a Christmas basket. They made favors for the Valley Home at Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Valentine's Day.

Torch Tri-Hi-Y gave a Christmas basket and had cake sales and car washes. They also made scrap books for hospitals and sold soft drinks at the games.

Amica Tri-Hi-Y helped in the Community Chest Drive and made favors for Christmas. They also sponsored dinners with other Y groups.

Puyallup Tri-Hi-Y sponsored Rec dances and had a popcorn sale. They gave a Christmas party at Cushman Hospital and sent delegates to Kelso for pre-legislature.

Viking Hi-Y worked on a Thanksgiving basket and had several joint meetings with Tri-Hi-Y's. They always lined the field for football games.

Torch Hi-Y swept the gym after all basketball games and picked up papers from the football field. They donated money to world service and helped distribute Community Chest posters.

COMMITTEES AID PLAYS

Vital part of any stage production are four groups: the Property Committee, Make-up Club, Publicity Committee, and Costume Committee. These groups work together to insure the success of any production.

Undoubtedly many students have been approached by a person asking to borrow such unlikely items as a davenport, a lamp, or a dead cat. Obviously this person was a member of the properties committee looking for a much needed prop for one of the various dramatic productions.

Another necessary and energetic group is the Make-up Club, which is responsible for the facial characterization of the Puyallup Thespian. Each member of the group is responsible for one actor and makes a study of the character before planning his make-up. Committee chairman was Mariella Gratzer. Miss Gertrude Hansen served as adviser.

Making the where, when, and who of a play known is the job of the Publicity Committee. They carry out their job by making and distributing handbills and posters; planning and financing programs; and advertizing in the local and Tacoma papers. Miss Elizabeth Buss was the adviser of this committee.

Girls of the Costume Committee put in many hectic hours designing and making costumes for the plays and for the holiday assemblies. Miss Alice Cole guided this group.

VIKING PATROL KEEPS ORDER; NURSES' CLUB CONSOLIDATES

Members of the Viking Patrol were on the job this yea seeing that students kept off the grass, that rowdiness i the halls was restricted, and that the bicycle rules were heeded.

This group was a service organization of the junior high. Mr. Eldon Angelo was the adviser. Members are chosen by old members of the patrol and remain in the group until the end of their freshman year.

Consolidation with the Sumner Future Nurses' Club was the big change for members of the Puyallup Chapter. The change was made to give the two small clubs the advantages of a large group.

In November the Future Nurses made a tour of the Mary Bridge Children's Hospital. They were shown through the wards and the student nurses' quarters. Club members presented the hospital with two scrapbooks for small children

A tour of Madigan Army Hospital was scheduled later in the spring. The girls planned a program for the patients.

TICKET SELLERS SERVE PUBLIC; STAGE CREW DESIGNS SETS

"Two, please." "That will be a dollar-fifty. Thank you." A conversation similar to this is an old story to the members of the ticket selling committee. These students—Elvera Sommer, LouAnn Johnson, and Bob Balsley—are on duty selling tickets and counting money at every school function that requires paid admission. At football games, basketball games, track meets, concerts, and plays, the ticket sellers served the public well.

The committee members are selected by their supervisor, Mr. Robert Vollen, and they receive no credit for their work.

Aside from their regular backstage maneuvers, the members of the stage crew can be seen doing such unlikely things as tumbling and sign painting. Under the leadership of Bill Rowe, stage manager, the group designed and made sets for "Our Town" and "Tom Sawyer."

The stage crew worked during regular stage class and also, when necessary, after school and evenings. They also handled lighting, curtains, sound effects, and spotlights for the Community Concerts.

Mr. Howard Shull was the adviser for the stage crew.

"Work hard and wait" are the watchwords of Junior High Band members. Under the direction of Edward Krenz, the band sparked the spirit at Junior High pep assemblies during the football and basketball seasons. Later in the winter the Junior High Band competed in the Western Washington Band Contest, entertained at the Spring Concert, and marched in the Daffodil Parade.

Directed by Frances Stoeckert, the Junior High Orchestra participated in the Orchestra Contest and performed at the Swing Concert. Both of these groups are getting the training which has made Puyallup High School famous in instrumental music.

MANY VOICES JOIN IN CHORAL MELODY

The Boys' Sextet and the Girls' Ensemble again combined this year to participate in many programs. They entertained at various civic meetings, club meetings, and luncheons. Students from these groups joined in the Christmas and Easter assemblies.

The A Cappela Choir was composed of 55 students picked from the Senior High Chorus classes. They highlighted the Easter Assembly and took part in the Spring Concert and Baccalaureate.

Dear Connie,
Good luck in the coming years at P. H. S. Have fun this summer and don't work too hard.

JUNIOR HIGH VOCALISTS SING IN CONCERT

Future Viking Varieties stars and Nonette and Sextet members are taught the fundamentals of music in the Junior High Girls' Glee Club and Chorus. In these groups, students sang and learned how to read and appreciate good music. The Junior High Girls' Glee Club had 120 singers, the largest membership in history. Both groups were under the direction of Louis Owens.

The Junior High Chorus was composed of Mr. Owens' first and sixth period classes. From this group members of the Junior High Choir were selected. Both groups took part in the Spring Concert, and the Girls' Glee Club sang in the Christmas program.

The Dance Band's jazzy music was a high spot in the annual Swing Concert. This lively aggregation took part in an exchange assembly in Enumclaw, and played at several home assemblies too. In the spring the Dance Band members took part in the solo contest held here in Puyallup.

"Singing for enjoyment" was the pleasant task of the 70 girls in the Senior High Girls' Glee Club. Members met after school twice a week to practice for concerts and contest dates. In the Christmas program, the Glee Club joined with the other vocal groups singing "O, Holy Night" to climax the program.

ART CLUB SHOWS PROJECTS

Sponsoring displays in the senior high halls was one of the first projects undertaken by Art Club. Members exhibited their work at the Fair and made a Halloween mural which was placed outside the cafeteria. At Christmas a small tree decorated with hand-made ornaments was shown at the Public Library.

In the spring all members pitched in to make paper flowers and other parts of the "Spring Mobile" exhibited at the All Schools Art Show at Maplewood. Finding time in their busy schedule, the Art Club also worked with screen printing, ex permenting with modeling materials, and trying paper sculpture.

Two senior high girls each period gave up a study hall in order to assist Miss Florence Pfefferle in the senior high library. They took attendance at the beginning of each period. Then the girls checked out books, shelved them, and repaired them.

Junior High librarians are given credits for this course and it is given to freshmen only.

The girls take turns being on duty before and after school and work for one assigned period each day under the guidance of Miss Jean Watson. They check books in and out, keep the author file up to date, and prepare displays for the bulletin boards.

VIK GRIDDERS TIE FOR THIRD, CHALK UP 5-3 RECORD IN PSL

The 1955 Viking football team, coached by Carl Sparks, won five and lost three, good for a tie for third place in the Puget Sound League.

In their first game, the Viks stunned the Everett Seagulls 14-13 at Everett. The loss was the only setback for the Gulls all season.

Puyallup opened its league play Sept. 23 at Franklin Pierce. After a hard fought game, the Vikings came out on top, 12-6.

The following week, the Kent-Meridian Royals unleashed a terrific passing attack to edge the Viks 12-6. Puyallup missed a first down by inches on the Kent 20 yard line in the dying minutes of the game after a drive from deep in their own territory.

The Vikings recovered from the Kent loss by overpowering the punchless Auburn Trojans 20-6 at Auburn.

The following Friday, Oct. 14, Puyallup defeated the Clover Park Warriors to keep a tight hold on third place.

Renton's Indians were the next victims of the Vikings, as they fell before the Norse 14-6.

On November 4, the Enumclaw Hornets stung Puyallup 7-6 to knock the Viks out of contention for second place in the league standings.

The Vikings registered their first shutout of the season Nov. 10, when the blanked the Highline Pirates 6-0 at Highline.

Puyallup's last game of the season, and perhaps their biggest, was the annual Thanksgiving Day affair with Sumner. The heavily favored Norsemen seemed to have the game won, when with less than 30 seconds left, the Spartans scored on a 60 yard pass play to win 13-7.

After the season was completed, the league's coaches voted on an all-conference team. Placing on the First team from Puyallup were Ed Pletcher, Vik captain and end, and Ed Burrell, guard. On the second team for the Vikings was halfback Jerry Williams. Receiving honorable mention were Keith Creley, fullback; Paul Morrison, quarterback; Dick Letourneau, end; and Dean Howard, tackle.

SOPHS GET FUNDAMENTALS

Puyallup's sophomore football team, coached in the absence of Carl Wasmund by Al Jacobs, Buster Brouilett, and John Smithers, had a fairly successful season in 1955, winning two, losing three, and tying two.

The 'B' squad opened its season Sept. 26 against the Franklin Pierce reserves at Viking Field. The Viks showed a very strong defense but little offense in defeating the Cardinals 6-0.

In their next outing, the Vik reserves showed the same type of attack. They held the powerful Stadium sophomores to six points but failed to score themselves, losing 6-0.

On Oct. 10, the 'B's were held to a 6-6 tie by an undermanned Auburn Trojan eleven. The visitors from Troy had only three substitutes on their bench, but showed a lot of spirit to fight the Vikings on an even keel.

Puyallup's day of reckoning came on Oct. 17 when the reserves ventured forth into the hunting grounds of the Clover Park Warriors. By the time the smoke had cleared, the larger Warriors had scalped the Viks 29-6.

Puyallup recovered the following week to deadlock with the Lincoln sophomores 7-7. The Vikings scored on their first series of plays, but couldn't threaten thereafter.

For the second time in their season, the sophomores played the Franklin Pierce 'B' squad, again beating them 6-0.

Due to a game with Enumclaw being called off, the 'B' squad played the Bethel reserves, losing a close game 6-0. The Vikings outplayed the Braves all through the game, but couldn't break the ice, while Bethel scored on a long pass play.

JUNIOR GRIDMEN BREAK JINX TO BEAT RENTON

The Junior High football team, coached by Jim Turman and Dean Nicholson, had a very successful season, as they won 3 games, lost 1, and tied 1.

In their opening game, the Baby Viks showed a lot of power, as they trampled the Renton frosh 25-6. This was the first time in history that a Puyallup Junior High football team had been able to defeat a Renton squad.

Enumclaw's Hornets disappointed the Vik freshmen the following week, as they downed the Baby Vikings 19-14.

The frosh played their arch rivals from Sumner October 20 at Sumner under the lights. After a hard fought battle, the Spartans held the favored Vikings to a 7-7 tie.

The frosh hit their stride in their final two games of the season. In the first contest, the Baby Viks downed a good Clover Park squad 13-7. The Puyallup freshmen finished out the season in fine style with a 13-6 defeat of Franklin Pierce's Cardinals.

According to Coach Turman, the 1955 Junior High team was one of the best teams he has ever coached here at Puyallup, and he expects them to go a long way in their high school career.

CHAMPIONS! VIKING BASKETEERS RUMBLE OVER OPPONENTS TO TAKE TWO TOP SPOTS

Champions of the Puget Sound League, first in the West Central District, and fifth in the state tournament were the 1955-56 Puyallup Vikings, considered by many to have been the finest basketball team ever to take the floor for Puyallup.

Under the direction of Coach Dean Nicholson, the mighty Viks rumbled over 23 of 27 opponents, losing only to Stadium, Kent-Meridian, Highline, and Richland. In the Puget Sound League play they won their first 14 ball games in a row to take their second straight title, virtually walking away from second-place Kent and Highline.

The Norsemen were ranked among the top 10 teams in the state on every weekly Associated Press poll for the second season in a row.

Led by co-captains Dave Filkins and Ron Crowe, the Puyallup five won their first five contests before being edged 56-51 by top-ranked Stadium of Tacoma. Then came one of the longest winning streaks in Viking history as the home five defeated 12 straight opponents. The skein was highlighted by successive overtime wins over Auburn, 82-80, and Renton, 30-29.

Coach Nicholson's charges then juggled their lineups in preparation for tournament play as they lost their last two unimportant league contests to Kent and Highline.

Because of their two losses at the end of the season, the Viks were a question mark as far as the district tournament was concerned. Fears were allayed, however as Puyallup downed Port Angeles 57-46 and then got sweet revenge by trimming Kent and Highline, thus becoming the number one entry in the state tournament.

VIKS REBOUND FROM RICHLAND LOSS TO TAKE FIFTH IN STATE TOURNEY

A first night loss to Richland in the state play-offs was doubly hard to swallow for the Viks and their followers since the Bombers had edged Puyallup last year by one point. This year's Viks held a nine-point lead at intermission, only to catch a delayed attack of tournament jitters and lose 58-53. The defeat sent Puyallup into the consolation bracket of the state tourney, while Richland went on to take third place. The Norseman five bounced back the following night by rolling over Moses Lake 70-55. Then they assured themselves a place by raking up the widest victory margin of the tournament in crushing the Blaine Borderites 60-32; only a last-second basket by Blaine kept the Viks from doubling the Borderites' score.

For the fourth time during the 1955-56 season the Vikings tangled with Kent-Meridian in their final game of the tourney, and for the third time they came out victorious, this time by the score of 54-41. Thus Puyallup finished fifth—higher than any previous Viking team.

SOPHS ROLL TO 15-5 RECORD

More fine cage talent was found during the 1955-56 season in the Puyallup sophomore squad, which rolled to a 15 won, five lost record. Under the direction of Coach Frank "Buster" Brouillet, the sophs took third place in the tight sophomore circuit race, downing every team except Clover Park at least once.

GAA STRIVES TO PROMOTE GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

All sophomore, junior and senior high girls are given the opportunty for physical education activities through the Girls' Atheltic Association. One of the main aims of the club is to teach good sportsmanship.

The girls receive points for participating in various sports activities. After they have earned 550 points, they receive a letter. Then for each additional 550 points, a chevron is given. After the first letter is earned, the girls are eligible to join GAA. Sports this year included basketball, volleyball, softball, bicycling, hiking, table tennis, badminton, tumbling, bowling, and skiing.

The highest athletic award a girl can win is the Gold Victory Medal for which she must earn 2400 points. The Silver Victory is the second highest award and may be won with 2100 points.

GAA officers this year were Janice Elliott, president; Gail Kreshak, vice president, and Bernadine Kluge, secretary-treasurer. Karen Marlow was sports manager. Mrs. Marlys Thomas served as adviser.

DRILL TEAM, YELL STAFF SPARK SCHOOL SPIRIT

"Mark time! Forward march!" These commands resounded throughout the school when the drill team practiced in the gym. This marching unit appeared at several football and basketball games. They climaxed their year by marching through three cities in the annual Daffodil Parade. The drill team was led by Karen Marlow, the adviser and coach was Mrs. Marlys Thomas, and the managers were Jo Ann Brooks and Janice Mileski.

A jiving, jumping quartet of yell leaders captured th hearts of Puyallup fans this year, as they cheered th Vikings through victory and defeat. Yell Queen, Kathlee Watkin, Yell King, Danny Vesey, and Duchesses Rosemar Fly and Judy Nelson organized lively pep assemblies an promoted school spirit.

The school songs were led by the Pepsters: Rita Long Dorothy Davidson, Kathy Palmer, and Sharon Asbjornsen, three year member. Their pep and vitality sparked th football and basketball games, as they were always ther to push Puyallup spirits up, come rain, sleet, or snow.

The newly organized trampoline team, coached by Mrs. Kern, performed at basketball games and at civic meetings. Both senior and junior high girls were active in this group.

The familiar "Two Bits" and many other yells were led this year by three very lively and peppy junior high yell leaders. These girls were very faithful in leading the junior high teams in all kinds of weather. Sandy Bacon was yell queen; Susan Crowe and Yvonne Frith were duchesses.

High spot of the year for the junior high tumblers was their appearance at a basketball game. This junior high team is the training ground for senior high tumblers.

JUNIOR HIGH TRACKMEN AIM FOR CONFERENCE MEET

By compiling a score of 43 points, the junior high track team easily took Enumclaw, with 24 points, and Auburn, with 22 points, to start a very good season.

Losing their second meet by 18 points was no discouragment for the Baby Vik cindermen, as they came back in the thrid to win over Clover Park and Sumner by 8 points.

Ray Johnson outstanding shotputter broke the old Puyallup Junior High track record with a throw of 53'9". With the conference record in sight, Ray broke his arm to dampen the hopes of coach Al Jacobs.

The 440 yard relay team which consisted of Mike Baginski, Art England, Bob Johnson, and Reed Robertson did its share in winning the first three meets. The annual deadlines interrupted a complete report with one league meet plus the South End Qualifying met at Clover Park and the Conference meet at Auburn still on the agenda.

NEAR THE THEATER

PUYALLUP

To the Students, Faculty, and Citizens of Puyallup:

On July 26, 1954, I was asked to present to our board of education and to our superintendent my plans as to whether it would be better to build a new Senior High School or a new Junior High School. At that time I gave my arguments that it would be much better to build a new Senior High School rather than a new Junior High School. The board and administration thought differently and accepted the arguments for building a new Junior High School instead. Thus a new Junior High School will be ready for occupancy in 1956.

Regardless of this decision, someday Puyallup will have a new Senior High School. My plea then, is this: that the Puyallup School Board buy 40 to 60 acres of land now for this new high school with its gymnasium, its athletic fields, and its parking space, and not wait ten to fifteen years to buy the site when it would be extremely costly and difficult to obtain.

Puyallup is growing and the longer we delay the more difficult it will be to obtain such a site. Then, and then only, would we have a site and eventually a school equal to if not better than the other high schools in our Puget Sound League or in the State of Washington.

A second Junior High site is about to be purchased now. Let's give the future students in Senior High a break and purchase that Senior High site soon.

I deeply appreciate the opportunity of expressing this plea in the 1956 annual.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Hansen

Our journey of reflection and memory is done; we stand at the crossroads. But through the pages of this book lay the words and pictures which are symbols of your studies, your activities, your recreation. Now, as you turn the final page of the '56 Viking, pause and reflect, for memories dull and fade too soon.

Puyallup's halls still resound with the echoes made by those who have passed through her corridors. This was a championship year in many respects. Enterprising students copped awards, not only in basketball, but in debate, science, journalism, music, agriculture, and speech. These records will long stand as a tribute to those who have supported our traditions so well; those who are gone but not forgotten.

Dear Carrie

Its been fun having you in orchestra. I hope we get a good music teacher next year. Hope I have you in some of my other classes next year. I been fun eating lunch with you. Call me up some time this summer my phone number is WA-6552 its a Tacoma number so if you don't have extended service I'll call you. I hope I can eat lunch with you next too. Your a real pal. Best of luck in your future years at P.H.S.

I'll close with the little poem:

Roses are red
Violets are blue,
The boy will be lucky
When he marries you.

Love Joanne

Sorenson

P.S. Hope you don't mind all I took up so much room.

P.S. Your a real swell kid. "Leo or pops"

P.S. Don't mind the terrible writing or spelling.
